

Penn State World Campus and Finishing Trades Institute-MAR to offer educational support

The new education alliance between Penn State World Campus and Finishing Trades Institute of the Mid-Atlantic Region (FTI-MAR) offers you the unique opportunity to earn Penn State credits through FTI-MAR in Philadelphia. The first course in the Bachelor of Science in Labor and Human Resources degree program will be taught online in fall 2021 with on-site support from Penn State faculty. The 3-credit Introduction to Labor and Human Resources course will examine the role of labor and employment relations from individual, institutional, and global perspectives. Additional courses will be available online.

To assist you in your pursuit of a degree, the education alliance between Penn State World Campus and FTI-MAR provides:

- › a 5% tuition reduction on Penn State World Campus degree and certificate programs
- › admissions and advising teams specializing in adult learning
- › a career-focused curriculum built on the latest industry trends
